McKenzie; and "I Maintain The Right" The 307th Airborne Engineer Battalion in World War II, by Peter Turrebult: "Time Out for Combat" by Olis Sampson.

This roster is based on the original work compiled by 505-PIR veterans James J. "Joe" Meyers (Co. D) and Robert W. "Bob" Gillette (HHC). website address - http://505rct.org. vebmaster and roster author: Robert T.(Bob) Schweikert. son of 505-PIR, G Company veterans, Francis X. Schweikert.

This roster has been an ongoing work; beginning in April of 2012 through January 6, 2025.

At the end of WW-H is point system was developed to help the Ammy determine in what order an enlisted man or women would be returned to the United States and discharged from dury. The SGS Parachate Inflarity Regiment, 82nd Althorne Division was sestinged to occupation duty in Berlin. The 507 Parachute Inflarity Regiment, 17th Airborne Division was scheduled to be sent back to the States. In June 1945 the low point paratroopers of the SG7/h PIR replaced man for man the high point paratroopers of the SG5/h PIR that had point scores of ower SS points and warded to return home. These transfers are not reflected in this root reflected in this root reflected.

On June 21st 1945 approximately 1,000 high point veterans of the 505th PIR were reassigned and trucked to the 507th Parachute Infantry Regiment in Ramborvillers, France. Some of the 1,000 transferees were high pointers that transferred into the 505th PIR when the 505th PIR and the 515th PIR disbanded. This roster covers a time period of July 6,1942 through May 8,1945.
